

Aloha Graduate Students,

The Graduate Student Organization (GSO) is currently looking to fill three Executive Council (EC) positions for the upcoming school year. We are looking for an Events Chair, an Information & Communications Chair, and an Employment & Compensation Chair. If you're interested in being more involved on campus and serving on the GSO EC, please see the descriptions below!

The Events Chair is tasked with organizing social events for the graduate student body. This may include, but is not limited to:

- Organizing a monthly coffee hour
- Organizing at least 2 events per semester (such as a pau hana, volunteer events, trivia, etc.)
- Working with other chairs to plan and advertise events
- Attending monthly GSO meetings

The Events Chair receives a monthly stipend of $160

The Information and Communications Chair (I&C) is tasked with maintaining GSO social media and putting forth a monthly newsletter (for example newsletters please see the archive on the GSO website). This may include, but is not limited to:

- Managing GSO social media accounts; i.e. advertising GSO events/publications, taking pictures at GSO and other campus events, etc.
- Coordinating media relationships with outlets such as Ka Leo and the Star Advertiser
- Maintaining and updating the GSO website
- Attending monthly GSO meetings

The I&C Chair receives a monthly stipend of $180

The Employment and Compensation Chair's (E&C) primary focus will be unionizing graduate assistants (GA), increasing GA pay and benefits, and improving working conditions. The E&C Chair will work closely with the GSO Advocacy Chair. This may include, but is not limited to:

- Gathering and analyzing data related to GA compensation
- Assessing cost of living and other issues related to graduate student economic well-being
- Developing a graduate student Bill of Rights
- Attending monthly GSO meetings

The E&C Chair receives a monthly stipend of $160

Email contact GSO President Taylor Lewis at gsopres@hawaii.edu with a resume and cover letter to apply, or for inquiries!