

Aloha Graduate Students,

The Graduate Student Organization (GSO) is currently looking to fill three Executive Council (EC) position for the 2017-2018 school year. We are looking for an Academic Affairs Chair, an Advocacy Chair, and an Events Chair. If you're interested in being more involved on campus and serving on the GSO EC, please see the description below!

Academic Affairs

The Academic Affairs Chair is tasked with maintaining awareness of department- and system-level academic concerns for graduate students, investigating academic concerns, and working to address them at the appropriate level. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Serving as the GSO representative on various committees (Graduate Council, Student Conduct Appellate Board, Academic Grievance Committee)
- Forming committees as necessary to deal with academic concerns or developing programs (e.g. Grad Student Bill of Rights)
- Eliciting feedback from the General Assembly on academic concerns within their departments
- Attending monthly GSO and committee meetings

The Academic Affairs Chair receives a monthly stipend of $160.

Advocacy

The Advocacy Chair is tasked with working on political issues that affect graduate students. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Serving as the GSO representative on various committees (UH Student Caucus, Student Conduct Appellate Board, Academic Grievance Committee)
- Exploring opportunities to open up and deepen the political engagement of graduate students
- Creating and maintaining relationships with local political and community leaders and organizations
- Channeling and amplifying the voice of graduate students on pertinent issues such as cost of living, social justice, working conditions, and more.
- Attending monthly GSO and committee meetings

The Advocacy Chair receives a monthly stipend of $160.

Events

The Events Chair is tasked with organizing social events for the graduate student body. This may include, but is not limited to:

- Organizing a monthly coffee hour
- Organizing at least 2 events per semester (such as a pau hana, volunteer events, trivia, etc.)
- Working with other chairs and organizations to plan and advertise events
- Attending monthly GSO and committee meetings

The Events Chair receives a monthly stipend of $160.

Email GSO President Taylor Lewis at gsopres@hawaii.edu with a resume and cover letter to apply, or for inquiries!